Case Summary

In March 2018, the head men's wrestling coach (HC) paid for the meal of a volunteer men's wrestling coach (VC) during an unofficial visit at a local restaurant on two (2) occasions. On two (2) occasions, a prospective student-athlete (PSA), the HC, along with the VC and a student-athlete (SA), ate lunch at a restaurant within one (1) mile of campus during an unofficial visit. The HC paid for his own lunch and lunch for the VC on both occasions. The restaurant was located within one (1) mile of campus and it was permissible for the VC to be present at the meal. The HC misunderstood the legislation believing that since a volunteer coach is permitted to receive a meal on an official visit, he was also permitted to receive a meal during an unofficial visit.
